

Energy for the cell

Quantum Medicine

What does quantum medicine achieve?

Quantum medicine comes with scientific safeguards. It is based on the controlled use of quantum resonance fields.

Especially the quantum resonance system QRS® realizes the targetted use adapted to the respective organism of electro-magnetic fields.

„QRS is a blessing for humanity – from infants to pensioners.“

„QRS will bring about a paradigm shift in medicine“

Prof. Dr. Linus Pauling, USA, two-time Nobel Prize winner

The medically tested effects of this therapy are varied. It reaches each part of the organism, even the smallest blood vessels are activated. The body's own fields for the fixing and stabilizing the bones, which have become weak are strengthened, the exchange of cell nutrition and waste materials is intensified, the new development of proteins is forced. Overall, the regeneration of the cell components is stimulated and the effectiveness of the immune system is increased.

This is achieved through an activation of the cell metabolism. In this, QRS brings about the transport of ions and in particular protons in and out of the cell. The patented procedure thus enables an optimal supply to the cells. It frees the cell from waste products and toxins. QRS ensures a clear increase in oxygen in the tissue and has an effect on the transport of the materials also through the reinforced or weary tissue structures. It supports the natural healing powers of the organism and helps to fight the causes of an illness without harmful side effects.

This technology thus makes an excellent contribution to the healing or relief of chronic illnesses. It increases the wellbeing in the fitness, wellness and anti-ageing sector and promotes quicker regeneration in professional sport.

Energy and electrical potential of the cells

Energy for the cell

At least 3 hours or 8 minutes humans required at least 3 hours walking or 8 minutes QRS application each day for the energy development in the cell.

Europe-wide medical study with QRS

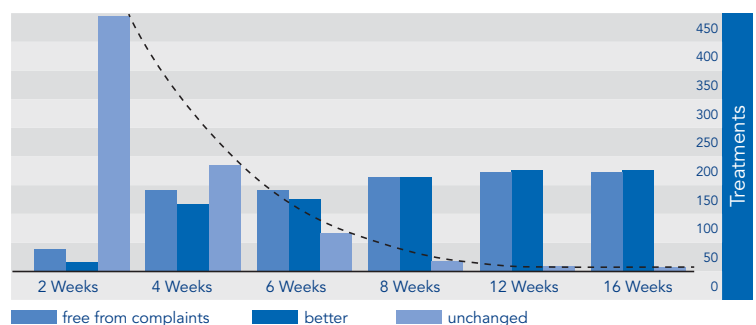

Illness-related evaluation of 24 symptoms subject to the rime of the therapy

A large number of clinical studies proves: The targeted energy supply with QRS systems leads in the case of a large number of symptoms already after a short time to a clear relief of the complaints. Through the activation of the natural healing powers in the organism.

Efficient devices...

QRS 101 Patient-home device

Quantum medicine focuses on the cell as the smallest unit of the life of an organism. And through the targeted supply of energy with the help of the QRS systems the cell is loaded permanently – a clear improvement of the complaints in a large number of various symptoms is the result.

After almost 15 years of research and 7 years of development work, efficient systems for the clinical area, for the doctor and for the home are available for therapy. The spectrum ranges from complex medical systems to easy-to-use mobile systems in a portable case. All product lines are compatible with one another.

The QRS 310 medical system belonging to the professional programme for example consists of a control unit with treatment couch and hard-wearing mattress with integrated quantum resonance field applicator as well as an additional quantum resonance field tubes and further components. Areas of use are, besides the treatment with the body's own frequencies, the use of targeted controlled quantum resonance field impulses for the specific treatment of e.g. osteoporosis, broken bones, migraines, depressions etc.

QRS Clinic/practice system (QRS 310)

Unlike traditional magnetic field therapy devices, through the individual chipcards control, the QRS systems require no more than 100 different programmes or field strengths. Absolute innovation: The doctor may save the programme required by the patients, the necessary intensity and the respective duration of the therapy on a chipcard and hand over this to the patient for therapy at home.

The QRS 301 MedicalLine thus comprises, besides the control unit, several Applicators, feedback sensors and 10 chipcards for the transfer of the therapy in the form of an electronic prescription to the HomeLine QRS 101. In addition, the MedicalLine has at its disposal more than 7 packet puls variations with implemented therapy routines for 82 indications and for the free therapy regulation.

QRS wellness couches and therapy chairs

In the case of the home systems, the basic equipment consists of three user programs: basic, vital and relax. In addition, electronic prescriptions can be transferred via the chipcard reading devices and a medically controlled therapy takes place.

Further chairs, couches and a multicenter are available for the wellness area. All products are licensed Europe-wide (EC certification).

QRS in space research

A dedication from July 06, from the MIR Space Station to the President of EUROSPACE and the QRS research in space, Prof. Dr. Dr. J. Waldmann.

Translation:

Dear Dr Fischer!

Upon full knowledge of the information on the possibilities of the QRS system, I would like to inform you that these supplement the investigations that we have carried out earlier in our laboratory and testify to the essential influence of the electro magnetic fields on the various systems of the human organism. Since in the orbital station cosmonauts and astronauts are permanently subjected for a long period (6-7 months) to the effect of electromagnetic fields, which differ from those on the earth, this set of problems has a current significance. We propose that the research results that were obtained during the the use of the QRS system both on earth as well as in the cosmic flight firstly make it possible to state precisely the mechanisms of the influence of the magnetic fields on humans and secondly when confirming this positive effect could be used to maintain the state of health of the cosmonauts. Our institute is prepared to collaborate in this area.
